

Save the Date: Saturday, October 22, 2016 at the University of South Florida

Integrated DANCE

Creating our Future,
Merging our Strengths

A follow up to AXIS Dance Company's National Convening on the Future of Physically Integrated Dance in the USA

Session themes include:

- Report on the National Convening of Integrated Dance by Judith Smith/ AXIS Dance Company
- Addressing challenges including visibility, training, and recruitment.
- Inclusive Dance Teaching Methods and Techniques: Sharing Most Effective Practices
- Financial Support Challenges: Merging/ sharing resources, identifying points of convergence, avenues of collaboration and identifying stakeholders.

A conference devoted to integrated/inclusive dance for educators, dancers, choreographers, VSA Florida teaching artists, policy makers and advocates. This conference focuses upon bringing together practitioners of integrated/inclusive dance in the southern region of the United States.

Guest artists, educators, and disability advocates with and without disabilities will serve as keynote speakers and a diverse body of national and international guest artists will participate in panel discussions and conference sessions to inform the content.

This conference is part of the National Convening Effort by AXIS Dance Company.

For more information and to register:
vsafli.org/content/new-definition-dance

"A New Definition of Dance" and the Integrated Dance Conference is funded in part by a grant from South Arts in partnership with the National Endowment for the Arts and through a USFRI Conference Grant.

