

Susan Davis Baldino, Ph.D.

Susan Davis Baldino is Arts4All Florida Regional Program Coordinator for the Panhandle and Big Bend area.

Connected to the disability, arts, and museum communities through research, work and personal life, Susan has been a longstanding advocate for accessibility, inclusion, and social justice. She is charter member of Keys to Exceptional Youth Success and former chair of the Florida State University Center for Autism and Related Disabilities Constituency Board. She served as member of the Florida Council on Arts and Culture, Chair of the Florida Association of Museums Foundation, President of the Tallahassee Museum, and trustee for the Tallahassee Symphony Orchestra. She is vice president of the St. George Lighthouse Association, part of the FSU "University of Choice" initiative, and a Knight Creative Communities Institute Catalyst.

Susan has curated numerous exhibitions including 13 "Artists and Autism" exhibitions, the 2019 Arts4All Florida "Creating Connections," 2019 "Beloved Florida: Landscapes of the Wheelchair Highwaymen," and 2021 "Forty for Forty."

Susan teaches graduate seminars in museum studies at Florida State University and holds a Ph.D. in Museum Studies from the University of Leicester (UK). Her research focuses on inclusive learning in museums.

Susan Davis Baldino
2602 Lotus Drive
Tallahassee FL 32312
850-510-8820
sbaldino@fsu.edu
susanbaldino@comcast.net