

Arts4All Florida presents
Musical Theatre & Movement

with Nanci Dorau
AGES 18 AND UP

With professional instruction from Nanci Dorau, students with disabilities can participate in these weekly classes at the Land O' Lakes Recreation Center. Students will learn about musical theatre and movement, visual art, rhythms, and song with appropriate accommodations so that anyone can enjoy the experience! Masks are strongly encouraged.

Nanci Dorau is a teaching artist and choreographer from New York and holds a BA in Arts & Disabilities. As the owner/director of five award-winning dance and Arts studios, her expertise includes ballet, tap, jazz, modern, creative movement, hip-hop, musical theater, choreography, ballroom dance, drama, rhythms, and performance. Many of her students are performing and teaching at international venues such as Garth Fagan Dance Company, Radio City Music Hall Rockettes, Disney World, Universal Studios, and major cruise lines. Miss Nanci has been a teaching artist for Arts 4 All, Florida for ten years bringing her love of the theater and dance to students with special needs.
