

We often understand dancing WITH our bodies... but what about THROUGH our bodies?

Using their refined sense of rhythm, balance and sound vibrations, Antoine Hunter and the Urban Jazz Company are coming to Florida to perform, educate and enlighten, virtually.

Antoine Hunter Photos by RJ Muna

For access and alternative formats, please contact wfinklea@usf.edu

Arts4All Florida in partnership with Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs presents

Bridging Community, Culture and Communication through Dance
New World Symphony WALLCAST® at SoundScape Park, Miami Beach and Facebook LIVE

April 20, 2021
8 PM

Antoine Hunter and the Urban Jazz Dance Company Schedule of Events

All Kids Included - Spring Workshop - Miami	March 27
HCC Dance Program - Master Class - Tampa.....	April 1
New World School of the Arts, High School - Miami.....	April 7
New World School of the Arts, High School - Miami.....	April 7

- Mr. Antoine Hunter is an award-winning and internationally renowned African American/Indigenous Deaf dancer, choreographer, actor, instructor, speaker, and a Deaf and social justice advocate.
 - A New Definition of Dance highlights the accomplishments of internationally renowned dancers with disabilities offering community engagement opportunities raising consciousness around the issues of disability.
- Arts4All Florida is headquartered in the College of Education at USF-Tampa.
www.arts4allflorida.org

A New Definition of Dance featuring Antoine Hunter and the Urban Jazz Dance Company is presented along with Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs & All Kids Included. Other funding in part from The Children's Trust, the City of Miami Beach, The Gobioff Foundation, the National Endowment for the Arts, New World Symphony, South Arts with support from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, and the State of Florida Division of Cultural Affairs.