

2020 Arts4All Florida Virtual Summer Camp

Animation Gets Real

for Students age 13-22 with Autism and Related Disabilities

Learn new skills using Zoom in a virtual classroom as you explore the world of animation, filmmaking and music technology!

Date: June 8 - 12, 2020

Time: Daily meetings according to the group you are assigned to between 9 AM - 5 PM

Where: Zoom Video Conferencing Technology from Tampa, FL and Los Angeles, CA

Supplies Needed:

- Access to a computer with good Wi-Fi connection
 - Toon Boom license will be provided
 - Zoom login link will be sent for daily access
- Paper & pencil
- Headsets
- iPad with assigned music apps installed
 - If you do not have your own iPad, we have an iPad loaner - shipped to your home with a return mailing envelope.

Supplies are limited so only request if you don't have access to one.

- iTunes gift card available to those with your own iPad and need to purchase apps for music class

Fee: $175 includes both Animation & iPad classes
$150 includes Animation OR iPad Music class

Meet Our Instructors

Dani Bowman, animator, author and entrepreneur will impart her animation skills while exuding enthusiastic inspiration to students with disabilities. Dani has ASD, Asperger's Syndrome Disorder and has been teaching animation for 5 years since she founded her company Powerlight Studios in Los Angeles, CA.

Dr. Clint Randles, Assistant Professor of Music Education at USF and an Arts4All Florida teaching artist teaches iPad music throughout the Tampa Bay area, allowing students to access an innovative musical art form that can be adapted to everyone. Dr. Randles teaches pre-service music teachers, works with local school districts, and conducts research on the place of creativity in the music curriculum.

To Register:

arts4allflorida.org/Camp-Programs.html

Spread the word...like and share

facebook.com/CampsForAll

twitter.com/arts4allflorida

