

2022 Arts4All Florida Summer Camp

Animation Gets Real

for Students age 13-22
on the Autism Spectrum

Returning to in-person classes this year at the University of South Florida's College of Education, students will learn new skills in digital artmaking by professionals in the field. Students will explore the world of animation, filmmaking, and music technology. Must have an interest in art and technology, all levels welcome!

Dates: Monday June 6th - Friday the 10th

Time: Daily meetings according to the group you are assigned to between 9 AM - 5 PM

Where: USF College of Education
4110 USF Apple Dr, Tampa, FL 33620

Pre-registration required by: May 13

REGISTER HERE

Students will be asked to submit 30 seconds to 2-mins video on why they wish to join camp. Please email video to karlaa@usf.edu We will confirm your registration on a first come, first serve basis.

Meet Our Instructors

Dani Bowman, animator, author and entrepreneur will impart her animation skills while exuding enthusiastic inspiration to students with disabilities. Dani has Autism and has been teaching animation for 12 years since she founded her company Danimation Entertainment in Los Angeles, CA.

Dr. Clint Randles, Assistant Professor of Music Education at USF and an Arts4All Florida teaching artist teaches iPad music throughout the Tampa Bay area, allowing students to access an innovative musical art form that can be adapted to everyone. Dr. Randles teaches pre-service music teachers, works with local school districts, and conducts research on the place of creativity in the music curriculum.

For more information:
arts4allflorida.org/Camp-Programs.html

Spread the word...like and share

Arts4All Florida is supported in part by an American Rescue Plan Act grant from the National Endowment for the Arts to support general operating expenses in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.