

Susan Davis Baldino, Ph.D.

Susan Davis Baldino is Arts4All Florida Regional Program Coordinator for the 18-county Florida Panhandle and Big Bend area.

A longstanding supporter of the arts and education, Susan has served as member of the Florida Council on Arts and Culture, President of the Tallahassee Museum, and trustee for the Tallahassee Symphony Orchestra. She is active with the Florida Association of Museums Foundation and St. George Lighthouse Association. She is currently part of the FSU “University of Choice” initiative and is a Knight Creative Communities Institute Catalyst, developing the music park, “Red Hills Rhythm.” Since 2013, Susan has curated seven exhibitions that feature works by artists of all abilities

Susan teaches graduate seminars in museum studies at Florida State University and holds a Ph.D. in Museum Studies from the University of Leicester (UK). Her doctoral research focuses on accessibility, inclusive learning, and social justice in museums.

Susan Davis Baldino
2602 Lotus Drive
Tallahassee FL 32312
Mobile 850-510-8820
Home 850-383-1104
sbaldino@fsu.edu
susanbaldino@comcast.net