

Arts4All Florida presents
Virtual Dance and Movement
Classes for Students with Disabilities through Chance 2 Dance

AGES 12 AND UP

With professional dance instruction through Chance 2 Dance, students with disabilities can participate in free weekly classes that have been generously underwritten and funded by a local family foundation. This virtual series of classes using Zoom meeting and classroom technology present dance & movement with appropriate accommodations so that anyone can enjoy the experience right from the comfort of their own physical space!

Miss Angel has been on the Chance 2 Dance team since March 2019. She received her 'Inclusion & Special Needs' Certification and CPR/AED certification upon training as a Lead Instructor for C2D. Miss Angel is fluent in American Sign Language and is currently majoring in Special Education at Seminole State College. Miss Angel enjoys coffee, church, and spending time with her family, she is excited to be dancing with you and is looking forward to meeting new dance friends!

All you'll need is a computer, tablet or phone with the Zoom app installed to get started. Once registered, you will receive the login information for the Zoom classes.

REGISTER NOW!

Registration offered in a series of 12 weekly classes

When: Mondays September 14 - December 14 (no classes October 26 and November 30)

Time: 4:00 - 4:45 PM

For more information about our community art class programs: arts4allflorida.org

Arts4All Florida is a statewide organization on arts and disability that provides, supports and champions art education and cultural opportunities for and by people with disabilities. Headquartered in the College of Education at the University of South Florida, Arts4All Florida seeks to make the arts accessible to everyone. For specific access information, accommodation requests, and alternative formats, please contact jsabo@usf.edu.

