The Divas With Disabilities Project

Arts4All Florida is proud to partner with The Divas with Disabilities Project to produce “The Art of Wellbeing”, a series of performances and outreach events by Divas. This performance will feature dance, music, comedy, fashion, and poetry, and will show how each Diva has taken the limitations of their disabilities and created their own unique style and innovative approach to artistic expression to promote their own wellbeing. The performers will challenge misconceptions and negative stereotypes about people with disabilities through the beauty of movement, music, and spoken word.
