Statewide Juried Exhibition of Original Art

Artists and Autism: The Next Step

"Artists and Autism: The Next Step" is a statewide exhibition program that will herald a celebration of new beginnings. The theme focuses on moving forward from one place or situation to another. Every journey begins with a single step and as a person embraces a new beginning, what does it feel like? What will it look like? What creative ways can someone use to celebrate moving onward from the past to a brighter future?

Arts4All Florida, the state organization on art and disability, joins with NextStep at Endeavor Academy to welcome works of art from artists of all abilities that reflect the exhibition's theme and demonstrate how art can express the "Next Step."
