

Arts4All Florida presents

Parkinson's in Movement

Explore your artistic and creative movement capabilities with Parkinson's in Movement! This series of in-person classes will offer fresh and uplifting dance experiences based on the acclaimed Dance for PD program offered in 250 other communities in over 24 countries.

- Discover imaginative ways of stretching
- Learn fun choreographic ways to stimulate balance and sensory awareness
- Build a sense of community
- Open to participants with limited mobility, Parkinson's, or related conditions

Andrew Carroll holds a BFA in Dance, and an MA in Arts Administration. Mr. Carroll has an extensive background in the performing arts, which includes performing nationally and internationally for nine years as a soloist with the Pennsylvania Ballet Company in Philadelphia. He currently is a tenured professor of ballet at The University of South Florida, a requested international guest teacher and speaker, and has produced worldwide videos on social justice issues.

2024 - 2025 SESSIONS

When: Series of weekly classes on Wednesdays
Dates vary per month and will be announced
via email reminders

Time: 11 am - 12 pm Eastern Time (US and Canada)

Place: USF Dance building first floor studios

3825 USF Holly Drive, Tampa, FL 33620

(The Dance Building sits next door to the Contemporary Art Museum on the USF campus. The entrance to the Dance building is right across from the museum)

Attire: Comfortable clothing you can move in Arts4All Florida - Creating Connections to and through Accessible Arts. For more information, visit our website at arts4allflorida.org. For specific access information, accommodation requests, and alternative formats, please contact emilydixon@usf.edu

REGISTER
NOW!

