

Arts4All Florida presents

Parkinson's in Movement

Explore your artistic and creative movement capabilities with Parkinson's in Movement! This hybrid series of classes through in-person and Zoom classroom will offer fresh and uplifting dance experiences, based on the acclaimed Dance for PD program offered in 250 other communities in over 24 countries.

- Discover imaginative ways of stretching
- Learn fun choreographic ways to stimulate balance and sensory awareness
- Build a sense of community
- Open to participants with limited mobility, Parkinson's, or related conditions

In-person class will be held at the USF Tampa School of Dance Studio 107 (first floor). For those attending remotely, you will receive the Zoom link once registered.

Andrew Carroll holds a BFA in Dance, and an MA in Arts Administration. Mr. Carroll has an extensive background in the performing arts, which includes performing nationally and internationally for nine years as a soloist with the Pennsylvania Ballet Company in Philadelphia. He currently is a tenured professor of ballet at The University of South Florida, a requested international guest teacher and speaker, and has produced worldwide videos on social justice issues.

Fall Session II, 2022

Parkinson's in Movement Hybrid Session

Where: Zoom, or Studio 107 at USF School of Dance,
3837 USF Holly Drive, Tampa, FL 33620

When: Series of 4 classes on Wednesdays Oct. 19th, Oct. 26th, Nov. 2nd and Nov. 9th

Time: 1pm - 2 pm Eastern Time (US and Canada) To

Register: REGISTER NOW!

Arts4All Florida - Creating Connections to and through Accessible Arts. For more information, visit our website at arts4allflorida.org. For specific access information, accommodation requests, and alternative formats, please contact karlaa@usf.edu.

