Jungle Fantasies

Welcome to Artfully Fun, where this week we will trekking into the artistic jungle to see what we can create. Throughout the week, we will have the chance to explore every facet of the arts, including the visual arts, music, drama, and dance. Not only will we get to learn the techniques to create our own masterpieces, but we will also get to make new friends along the way. We will have three awesome artists leading us through our jungle adventure this week.
